PART IV.

Bill of the Bengal Council.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was read in the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 1st December 1883, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon in one month :—

A Bill to amend "The Estates' Partition Act, 1876"

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Estates' Partition Act, 1876;"
It is enacted as follows :—

1. This Act shall be read with, and taken as part of, "The Estates' Partition Act, 1876," and it shall come into force from the date on which it may be published in the Construction and commencement of Act.

Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General.

2. Section 11 of "The Estates' Partition Act, 1876," is hereby repealed.

3. For section 11 of the said Act the following section shall be substituted :—

"11. No application for the partition of a permanently-settled estate shall be admitted, and if the application shall have been admitted, no partition shall be carried out in accordance with any such application, if any separate estate to be created by such partition would be liable for an annual amount of land revenue not exceeding ten rupees."

No partition of a permanently-settled estate allowed, if separate estate liable for less than ten rupees annual land revenue.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Partition of Estates under the existing law now makes such demands on the time and attention of Revenue Officers in some Districts as seriously to interfere with the discharge of their other duties.

Of late years the Legislature has provided means short of a complete separation of the liability for land revenue by which a joint proprietor can, to a great extent, protect himself against the consequences of default by his co-parcener.

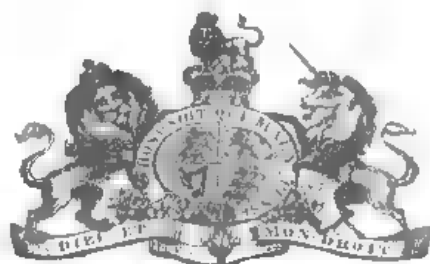

The object of the Bill is to relieve Revenue Officers of the duty of making partitions of which the effect will be to create separate estates liable for an annual amount of land revenue not exceeding Rs. 10, as the public inconvenience caused by their employment in this duty now outweighs its advantages.

The proprietors of joint interests in estates, who will be precluded from applying for Partition by Revenue Officers, will now be placed, in respect of separation of their shares, in the same position as the joint holders of a tenure who have no right against their landlord of splitting up the tenure.

Dec., 2nd	270	12mo	1st	1,000	ditto	0 10 0	Hirabál Chakrabarti, Rájárbá-gán, Calcutta.	This is a new History of India. The reason why it has been written is thus explained in the preface:—"Almost all the works on Indian History which have been up to this time published in Bengali are written in a complicated style, and are therefore particularly unfit to be read by little children with tender minds. I have been induced to write this book in a plain and simple style suited to the capacities of boys." The history is brought down to the administration of Lord Lytton.	1666 taken from any pharmacopoeia, Hindu or European, but are mostly such as have been dictated by common sense, and found efficacious by trial. They are often of an empirical nature, and as the knowledge of many of them is possessed only by non-professional men, who, from pecuniary or other motives, manifest great unwillingness to communicate it to others, compilations of this kind are believed to be particularly useful and valuable.

Nov., 27th	70	12mo	1st	1,000	ditto	0 10 0	Nrisinha Kumār Ghosh, Calcutta.	The Tarjā is a species of literary warfare prevailing in this country. It consists of two hostile parties proposing questions to each other for solution.	1936
The questions generally relate to minute and recondite points in Hindu mythology, and have to be answered as soon as they are put, and without any previous knowledge of what they would be. The party which fails to return quick and correct replies is considered hors de combat , and has to retire in disgrace under a shower of very low abuse from the victorious party. The replies are given in verse, interspersed with songs. The Tarjā , at one time a very popular amusement in this country, is now falling out of fashion. The word itself seems derived from the Sanskrit root ṭarj , tarja , which means to rebuke or threaten.
